

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

ANOTHER SUBMARINE

Nelson Haining
—Brooklyn Eagle

THE MAJESTY OF THE LAW

—Chicago News

A PIPE DREAM

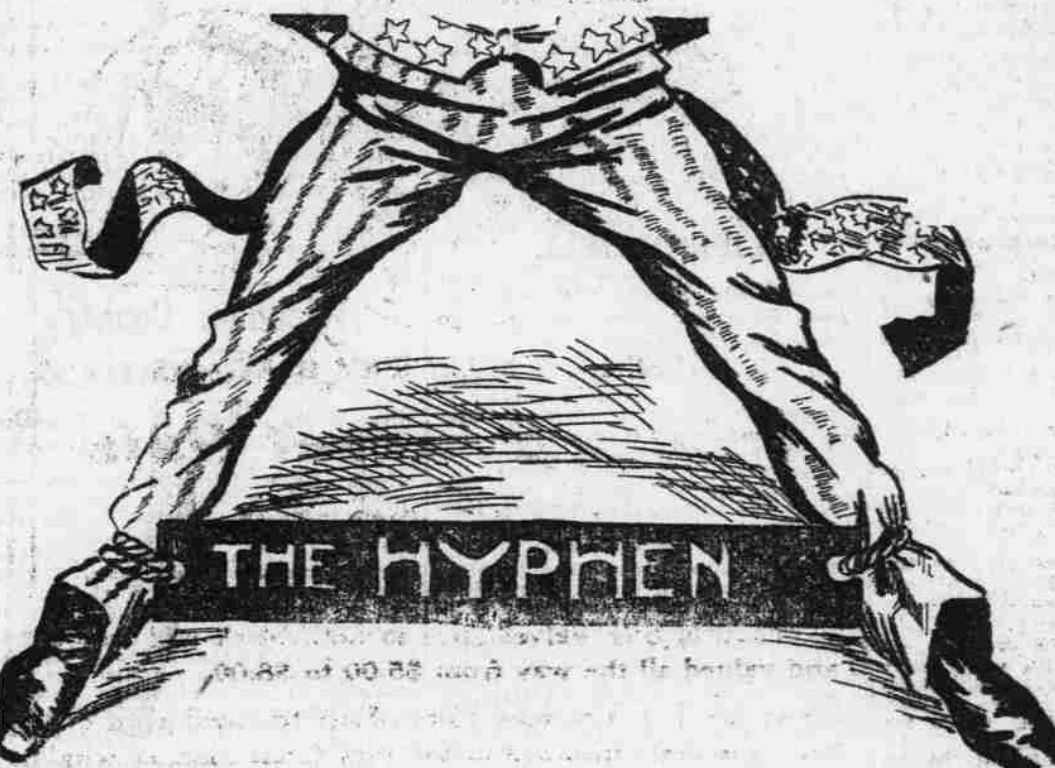

"THE MELANCHOLY DAYS ARE COME"

—Philadelphia Public Ledger

DIVIDED WE FALL

We Cannot Get Anywhere This Way

CURRENT HISTORY IN CARTOON

The Latest Surprise Box

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

CHESTERFIELD

Mrs. Nathan Bliven of Westerly is visiting her mother and sister, Mrs. George Weldon and Etta Weldon. Mrs. Charles Powers, Mrs. Willis Chappell and Miss Ellen Holmes are callers on Mr. and Mrs. Albin Holmes of Hamburg, Thursday. Mrs. Willis Chappell returned to her home in Westerly Sunday, after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers and family. Irving Gadsbols and daughter Flora, were Sunday callers on J. E. Powers and family. Miss Julia Sullivan spent the week end with her parents in New London. Miss Ellen Holmes has been the guest of her brother, George I. Holmes. Jacob Kaplan was in Hamburg Wednesday, buying calves. People from the vicinities around attended the dance at Salem, Friday evening and also the one at the Golden Spur, Monday evening. Morris Cohen and Barney Levitt lost two horses the first of the week. Carlon E. Wheeler and Superintendent Charles E. Jennings of New London were here Thursday visiting schools. J. L. Raymond and Thomas Tucker of North Lyme were business callers here Tuesday. Messrs. David Phillips and William Dart caught a large fox the first of the week. Matthew Tinker is spending the week in Montville with the assessors.

YAWBUX VALLEY

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Maine attended the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Chapman at their home near Westerly, Saturday evening. Jacob Asklon has gone to White Rock, R. I., where he will be employed by David Nason, during the winter. Miss Josephine Panceira spent Sunday with her parents at Westerly. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bliven of Westerly were callers here Sunday evening. Miss Anna L. Chapman spent Saturday night with Mrs. David Nason at White Rock.

MOHEGAN

Mrs. Anna Maple of Central Village is visiting Mrs. John Fielding. There was a good attendance at the church Sunday, both morning and evening. John Dobear was in Mystic on Tuesday. Miss Trumbull of New London called on friends in this place Sunday.

NORTH LYME

Charles Miner of Salem visited H. A. Gates over Sunday. M. J. Stark, Miss Emily Stark and Mrs. N. S. Strong visited in New London last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. William Sisson, W. M. Sisson Jr. and family, visited Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sisson in Deep River, Sunday. W. M. Sisson Jr. and Mrs. William Sisson, motored to New London, Monday. Mrs. Fanny Tillotson, who has spent several months with her niece, Mrs. William Sisson, returned to her home in East Lyme this week. John Evans is visiting friends in East Lyme. Mrs. Cora Rogers fell and dislocated her left wrist one day last week. Dr. Dewitt set the bones, but it will be six weeks before it will be strong enough to be used.

ASHWILLETT

Mr. Havens is moving this week from the farm of S. C. Eggleston. A. A. Morgan is to look after the stock this winter. Julius Wolfgram was a caller in Yawbux Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Julia A. Crumb was in Voluntown last week. S. Ahlberg has finished building a barn for T. Curtis near Voluntown. George House of Norwich was in this place recently. Some of the young men are having luck selling furs this season.

LISBON

Pastor Gives Report of National Council. Rev. W. J. Reynolds' subject Sunday morning was Contentment. At the evening service he gave a report of the meeting of the National Council in New Haven which he attended. The Ladies' Missionary society met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Augustus Read. Mrs. Sarah Hall and Miss Elizabeth Hall of Norwich were guests of Miss Martie Barber Thursday. Mrs. Charles Albonesi and son moved this week to their former home in Brooklyn. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Palmer were in Poquonoc over Sunday, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Palmer. Claire Barber of Waterbury came Thursday to visit his father, R. R. Barber, and his sister, Miss Martie Barber. Father and son motored to Waterbury Friday where R. R. Barber was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Barber for a few days, returning home Monday. Mrs. W. S. Foote returned home on Saturday after spending the week with relatives in Bridgeport and New York.

UNCAVILLE

Supervisor Wheeler Wants Pupils Taught Highway Behaviour—Wedding—Surprise Party. School Supervisor Carlton E. Wheeler has sent to the principals and teachers of the various schools in town circulars containing instructions which he wishes to have taught the pupils of these schools in regard to conduct on the public highway. The teachers are requested to devote 20 minutes a week for two weeks to practice the suggested lessons in regard to conduct on the streets. The circular contains suggestions in regard to which side of the street to walk on, how to cross the street for streets with sidewalks and without; no games to be played in the roadway, etc. The principals are requested to assign teachers to watch the main roads to investigate the children's conduct. Parents are requested to cooperate with the teachers. Harold Rosenlund, employed in New Haven, has returned to his duties after spending a week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosenlund of Pequot. Lewis Hurlbutt, former Montville postmaster, has returned to his home in Hartford, after spending a few days in town. James E. Bolger, superintendent of the Keyes Process Co., left town for New York from this place. He will go to Niagara Falls, where he will spend a while at his home. Pound Party. The Good Cheer Sunshine society will hold a pound social at the home of Miss Laura E. Woodward on Tuesday evening. Each member is to bring a friend and each is to bring a pound of groceries which will be used to fill baskets to distribute at Thanksgiving. Mr. Thomas Dolbear entertained the society at its meeting at which there was a large attendance. Country Club Fair. At the Country Club fair, held in the casino the door awards went to Miss Edith Grant, Rev. Donald Fletcher and Laurence Eldredge, Jr., a sofa pillow was given Robert Brown. The for prize guessing the weight of a loaf of cake went to Mrs. Laurence Eldredge. Miss Minerva Comstock is to spend several weeks visiting with friends in New Haven and Norwalk. Fred Green has gone to work teaming for Ben Sharp of Neff Hill. Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Laken of Plainfield, were in town Tuesday afternoon to look over the Baptist parsonage previous to deciding on accepting the call to become pastor of the church. Hurlbutt-Bartlett. Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bartlett, their daughter, Miss Iva E. Bartlett, was united in marriage with Rufus Hurlbutt of Gales Ferry. Miss Bartlett wore a gown of white crepe de chine, trimmed with embroidered chiffon. She carried bride's roses. Miss Minnie Bartlett, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, wearing a gown of yellow silk crepe, carrying yellow chrysanthemums. After the ceremony a reception was held for relatives and friends after which refreshments were served. The bride received many beautiful gifts. Up to the closing of school Miss Bartlett has been a teacher in Palmer Memorial.

New Bowling Alley.

A building has been erected for Edward Curten to be used as a bowling alley. The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Richard Johnson, a comic party, each guest was to wear a costume representing some comic character. A small admission fee was charged. John Cuddy, Joseph St. Germain, Matthew Geary, John Mahoney, Henry Rheaum, Cornelius Fitzgerald, Arthur Buchard, members of the Pequot council, Knights of Columbus, attended the exemplification of the third degree of White Cross council in Norwich last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Kemmeron of Pequot have been entertaining Charles Chapel of Central Village.

Athletic Club Meets.

The members of the Athletic club at its last meeting chose Adam Ritcher as president, to succeed Lloyd Jennings who resigned and left town. A report was read by the treasurer and it was found that about thirty dollars was added to the treasury by the receipts from the show given by the minstrel troupe and reception. Surprise Party. Miss Annie Bellup was given a pleasant surprise at her home in Pequot Saturday evening by Misses Mae Sullivan, Elizabeth MacKenzie, Ella Mahoney, Agnes Hickey, Fred Lewis, Leroy James, Thomas Sheehan, James Leary and Frank Brown. After an pleasant evening spent playing games and with music refreshments were served by the hostess. At the meeting of Cochegan camp, Modern Woodmen of America, the first degree was worked on a candidate. The Massacott Co. has automobile trucks and teams at work most all day

Sundays transferring their goods from the mill in their shipping place in Palmettown. This was necessary because the bridge put in at Oakdale was closed to traffic. A detour around by the almshouse which made the distance much longer made this necessary. James Lavenne has returned to his home in Stafford Springs, after a few days spent in town. Elevator Man Injured. Medcoe Lusignan, who runs the elevator at the Pequot mills met with an accident which gave him several bad bruises. Mr. Lusignan was coming up on the elevator and when near the floor the cable broke, the elevator dropping to the lower floor. James Muller has returned to his home in Springfield, Mass. James Phillips, who has finished his course at the Lyndotype school he has been attending in Boston, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred I. Phillips in Pequot for a while.

GOSHEN

Hunter Shoots Squirrels, Rabbit and Hoot Owl—Endeavorers to Attend Norwich Meeting. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Randall recently spent several days with friends in Meriden and Hartford. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor and daughter, Mrs. Thaddeus Miller of Portland, were guests of friends here this week. J. K. Quinlan of Norwich was a business caller here Monday. Oramel Mott was the guest of his brother, W. I. Mott at Hillside farm this week. A local man thought he would go out with his gun a short time recently. He came home with a number of squirrels, a rabbit and a large hoot owl. F. A. Lathrop is serving as juror at the present term of the superior court in Norwich. Pastors to Exchange Pulpits. Rev. John H. Knott is to exchange with the Rev. Rollis A. Campbell of Lebanon (tomorrow) Sunday. Going to Norwich Town Meeting. A number from Goshen expect to attend the Christian Endeavor Union meeting of the Norwich Union, held with the society at Norwich Town this (Saturday) afternoon and evening.

LAUREL GLEN

Neighborhood Social Held at Eugene Congdon's—Coon Hunt. Mrs. Etta Holdredge and son, Harold, of Worcester, Mass., have been visiting the former's brothers, William and Dwight Maine. Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson and Mrs. Cynthia Watson of Westerly were guests Sunday of Mrs. Amos Palmer. The neighborhood social was held at Eugene Congdon's last Saturday evening. Guests From Colorado. Mr. and Mrs. Cornell and four children of Colorado are visiting at the home of Mrs. Cornell's sister, Mrs. McCulloch. William L. Maine spent last Sunday at Gorton Point. School was closed Monday as the teacher, Miss Chapman, visited other schools. Rev. W. F. Newton, the state evangelist, is the guest of W. L. Main and family. Herman Holdredge of Mystic was at Attorney Main's last Sunday. Mrs. Lydia Holdredge is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Main are soon to move to Ashaway. Got One Coon. Harry and Erastus Chesbro with friends, accompanied by John Geer, enjoyed a con hunt last Saturday night. They captured one.

NORTH STONINGTON

Miss Luddington of Lyme Gives Address on Equal Suffrage—Mission Study Class Formed. Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Governor H. Brown, Deacon John D. Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. Gray, Mrs. Ellsworth Gray and Mrs. T. P. Norman attended the Fellowship meeting at the Road church, Wednesday. The next meeting of the series will be held in North Stonington Dec. 8. Address by Miss Luddington. The Ladies' society of the Third Baptist church met with Mrs. Edgar W. Chapman Thursday afternoon. Miss Luddington of Old Lyme, a prominent woman suffrage worker, who wished to meet the ladies of this locality and speak in behalf of the cause in which she is engaged was present. Much in treat was manifested. After the address, tea was served. Mrs. Lucian Drury and Mrs. Lenader P. Park pouring. The house was beautifully decorated with the suffragists' colors in honor of Miss Luddington. The attendance was large. Mission Study Class. The Ladies' society of the Third Baptist church having formed a Mission study class, met at the home of Miss Dora T. Maine Tuesday afternoon. The book used is The King's Highway. Miss Maine is the leader of the class. Village Notes. Mrs. H. B. Beckett has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Doyle of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Bindicos of Mystic have been guests of Mrs. Leonard Maine. Miss Evelyn Maine spent Sunday in Mystic. Telestar of Providence has been in town for a few days. George H. Stone has begun the erection of a dwelling at the south end of the village. Mrs. T. P. Norman spent Sunday in Preston.

FRANKLIN

Sunday morning the subject for the service will be "Personal Liberty" at Franklin church. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Robinson and granddaughter, Ruth Parker Robinson, have returned, after ten days' visit with their son, Lloyd R. Robinson of Brattleboro, Vermont. Mrs. Josie Parker and Mrs. George Geer of Plain Hill were recent guests of Mrs. Hemon A. Gager. Miss Marion Beckwith of Norwich is visiting Miss Clara L. Grant. Mrs. Estella Maine and Miss Lucy Palmer of Gorton, and Mrs. Myron Smith were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Smith. Milton Backwith has returned, after a two months' stay in California. Everett Smith is to spend two months in California. Mrs. Isaac Geer and daughter, Miss Florence Geer of Ledyard are guests of Mrs. Charles Beckwith. Mr. and Mrs. George Avery, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Armstrong, Mrs. Louis Smith, Albert Beckwith, Miss Florence Rockwood, Ernest Smith and Miss Florence Geer attended the Y. M. C. A. concert in Norwich, this week. The work committee of the Ladies' Aid society, met with Mrs. Hermon Gager on Tuesday afternoon.

PRESTON

Pastor and Wife on Automobile Trip to New Hampshire. Mrs. Thues Glidman Turner spent the week-end among friends here. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cray and Mrs. Ida Cray were in Westerly Monday, to attend a funeral of a cousin. Mrs. R. M. Harding and son, Master Frank, have returned home, after a fortnight's visit among relatives in Lyme. On Automobile Outing. Rev. and Mrs. L. M. Keniston are on an automobile trip in New Hampshire this week. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church met Wednesday afternoon. Teachers' Meeting. The teachers of the town with the supervisor, Mr. Swift, met at the Preston City school, Wednesday, for their monthly teachers' meeting.

FITCHVILLE

George Adams for several years past residing in the village moved his family to Norwich, where he will be employed. John Kelley of Quincy, Mass., spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kelley. Mrs. Jennie Phillips of Uncasville was in town Sunday, attending the funeral of Mrs. Everett N. Clark. Joseph Dwyer of Boston has been a recent guest of friends in town. Mrs. Julia A. Kinberger left Tuesday for the Berkshire Hills, to spend several days. Charles Thompson of Willimantic spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompson. Miss Rose Brown of Norwich is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Kelley. Miss Nettie Foley of Willimantic spent Sunday with her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Foley. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Lynch were recent visitors in Willimantic. The sewing circle of the Fitchville Baptist church met Sunday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. O. Baker Lamphere.

HALLVILLE

Samuel Fish and family were week end visitors with Mr. Fish's parents at the Poquetanuck Drawbridge. Mrs. L. A. Eccleston was visiting friends in Ashaway, R. I., Sunday. Mrs. Noyes Main of Westchester visited relatives here Monday. The O. N. T. club met with Miss E. na Conrad Tuesday evening.